Friday, Auguſt 12. 1659.

Ordered by the Parliament,

That the Troops and Companies that have been Raiſed or Commiſſionated by the Councel of State, or that have come in voluntarily to aſſiſt the Parliament in this time of Danger, be preferred and taken into the Militia's in the ſeveral Counties and Places of this Commonwealth. And that the pleaſure of the Parliament herein be ſpeedily ſignified to the reſpective Commiſſioners for the Militia. And the Councel of State is to take care that the Premiſes be put in due execution accordingly.

THO. St NICHOLAS,
Clerk of the Parliament.
